Naperville Education Foundation Welcomes Julie Beehler and Jenny Tank to Board of Trustees

Naperville, IL – The Naperville Education Foundation (NEF), the non-profit arm of Naperville School District 203, welcomed two new members to its Board of Trustees: Mrs. Julie Beehler and Mrs. Jenny Tank.

“Both Jenny and Julie bring strong professional experience that will be a significant value to our foundation,” Board Chair Kitty Ryan said. “Just as importantly, they are both passionate about the NEF mission, especially ensuring that every Naperville 203 student can take advantage of opportunities to make the most of their education.”

Julie Beehler

Julie Beehler recently retired after more than 35 years working in Naperville 203. Beehler began her district career as an elementary teacher at Ellsworth, ultimately becoming Principal at Naper Elementary before becoming Director of Administrative Services for the district.

The Naperville Education Foundation is a not-for-profit 501(c)(3) Illinois corporation. All gifts are tax deductible based on federal IRS regulations. Please consult your tax advisor for details. All information is held in strict confidence and at no time will be shared with, sold or rented to other organizations. Donor names may appear online or in publications unless you notify us otherwise.

Beehler is originally from Naperville and she and her children grew up in District 203. Beehler has been involved in NEF as a principal representative as well as serving on the Annual Grants and Programs Committees.

“I was an administrator when NEF began and I’ve seen NEF’s value from the very beginning,” Beehler said. “Especially as Principal, I’ve seen firsthand the funding that NEF provides has been a way to help kids and families in a different way than the school itself was ever able to do.”

Jenny Tank

Jenny Tank is owner of Clever Belle, an apparel company selling t-shirts that empower girls and women to wear clothes that outwardly show their interests and dreams.

Tank is an attorney and an advocate, currently acting on behalf of children in the foster care system through CASA of DuPage County. She is also a Career Advisor for NAMI DuPage and serves on the Home and School Association for Highlands Elementary School.

“I’ve always been interested in advocating on behalf of children and went to law school because of this interest,” Tank said. “I have always given my time and effort towards helping kids. I want to give back and help local students pursue their dreams and goals. I’m happy to be a part of an organization that has the ability to make such a positive impact in our community.”

###

The Naperville Education Foundation (NEF) raises and grants funds for programs that enhance and enrich the educational experience of Naperville School District 203 students. With the generous support of foundations, businesses, educational professionals and individual donors, NEF is able to provide financial resources that increase learning opportunities by supplementing school district budgets. NEF encourages creativity, innovation and excellence in our students by helping to ensure that every student in the district can take advantage of opportunities to make the most of their education. www.nef203.org
